Off track riding is possible all three days.

Accommodation

The organisers do not offer accommodation. There many options in the Veszprém and North Balaton area.

Currently in Hungary sport teams are allowed to rent accommodation even if tourism is restricted. Rules may change, but currently you have to state clearly that you are attending a sport event as a member of a sport club.

Miscellaneous information

The event is organised according to the competition rules of the Hungarian, Austrian and Czech Federations

Helmets are compulsory for every participant.

Some of the participants of the WE, ME and WMS classes will ride with GPS tracking.

Live GPS will be shown in the EC after the last start.

A buffet will serve food and drinks in the EC during the competition.

No training is allowed on the competition terrains before the event.

Please observe the highway code and the forest law.

If the event is cancelled, neither the organisers, nor the Hungarian Orienteering Federation takes any responsibility for expenses incurred by participants, except for entry fees transferred earlier.*

By entering the event, participants agree that their photos taken during the competition and their results may get published online. Everybody takes part on the event at their own risk.
